A Recap of Desert Arc's Open House Celebration at the Morongo Basin Campus

Thursday, March 21, 2024, marked a momentous occasion for Desert Arc, as the Yucca Valley Chamber of Commerce assisted with an Open House / Ribbon Cutting event. More than 70 individuals gathered at the campus to join this celebration.

Here's what happened that evening:

Ray Gosnell, Desert Arc's Director of the Morongo Basin program, cuts the ribbon, surrounded by esteemed guests and supporters. This event was postponed due to the Pandemic.

Desert Arc's President, Richard Balocco, being presented with a Proclamation from Wanda Stadum, CEO of the Yucca Valley Chamber of Commerce (COC).

A captivated audience gathers as Desert Arc officials talked about programs, services, and commitment to adults with intellectual or developmental disabilities living in the high desert.
