

WE'RE HIRING

Community Support Coach

Description:

Under the direction of the Community Program Manager the Community Support Coach plays a vital role in supporting participants to achieve greater independence and community integration. This position involves designing and delivering instruction and support that enhances life skills, employment readiness, and social participation for individuals with developmental disabilities. The Community Support Coach is responsible for understanding and working with the client's objectives, goals and plans. The coach is responsible for the accurate, thorough, and timely completion of all client reporting.

Location: Palm Desert

Pay: $19.50/Hour
Full-Time Position

Apply Online:

www.DesertArc.Org

Qualifications:

High School Diploma or Equivalent preferred
Minimum three years experience in social services
All positions require a Clean DMV Record and a clean background check.